

Hebrew University of Jerusalem – Rothberg International School
Summer Program

Summer study abroad courses are designed for undergraduate and graduate students, as well as mature learners with academic backgrounds. These courses go beyond the classroom. Students from more than 90 countries around the world enjoy a summer schedule packed with enriching seminars, fun activities, and local trips designed to help them explore Israel’s geographic and cultural landscape. All summer courses at HebrewU’s RIS are accredited and taught in English.
